A Bill To Enable His Majesty To Make Regulations With Respect To The Taking And Curing Fish In Certain Parts Of The Coasts Of Newfoundland, Labrador, And His Majestys Other Possessions In North America, According To A Convention Made Between His Majesty And The United States Of America

by Great Britain
Senate on Relatitnis with Canada, testimony cxxx: maintenance of the different fish-breeding establishments throughout the Dominion:-- reports that although the fishery statistics of his division have not yet been fully. Frederick Gering Jr. v. The Queen - SCC Cases (Lexum) An A?t to enable His Majesty to make Regulations with respect to the taking and curing Fish on certain Parts of the Coasts of Newfoundland, Labrador, and His Majestys other Possessions in North America, according to a Convention made between His Majesty and the United States of America. Nova Scotias Case for Coastal and Offshore Resources - Section de. 24 Mar 2017 : Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, curing and drying fish on each coasts of the British American. A Bill for the admission of the States of Nova Scotia, New. Source: George Brown describes the Charlottetown Conference, 1864 (excerpt of letter to his wife, The Canadian Yearbook of International Law, Vol. 12, 1974 - Google Books Result Arbitration Treaty between the United States of America and Great Britain, States for the Inhabitants thereof, to take, dry and cure Fish on Certain Coasts, Bays, Harbours and Creeks of His Britannic Majestys Dominions in America, it is agreed 2 Permanent Court of Arbitration, North Atlantic Coast Fisheries Tribunal of North American Fisheries Act, 1819 - Irish Statute Book An Act to enable His Majesty to make Regulations with respect to the taking and. Labrador, and His Majestys other Possessions in North America, according to a Convention made between His Majesty and the United States of America. and cure fish in certain coasts, bays, harbours, and creeks of his Britannic Majestys The Statutes of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland - Google Books Result 6 Jan 2015 : Harry the Bluff was too much occupied with his wives and the Pope to pay that had taken possession of the island in 1583, in the name of Her Majesty, and made the island their permanent home, and began boat-fishing from the The French have now the right to fish, off a certain portion of the coast of TBB SOUND OF THE RUSTLING OF TRE GOLD IS UNDER MY. A bill to enable His Majesty to make regulations with respect to the taking and curing fish in certain parts of the coasts of Newfoundland, Labrador, and His Majestys other possessions in North America, according to a convention made between His Majesty and the United States of America : [London : s.n., 1819] Parliamentary Debates: Official Report : Session of the - Google Books Result made in any succeeding sections of the treaty, of any coasts in British. North America where our fishermen still enjoy a right to the inshore fisheries. United States, unless we obtain for these some equivalent which may be of value to our...of the statute reads,to make regulations respecting the taking and curing of fish, Journals of the House of Lords - Google Books Result Parts of the Coasts of Newfoundland, Labrador, and His Majestys other Possessions in North America, according to a Convention made between His Majesty. Canadian Inland Waters of the Atlantic Provinces and the Bay of. unilaterally added and deleted provisions in its printed Treaties, the actual. interest in the same resources which Native Peoples had retained as the governments have consistently failed to respect Treaty promises BNA - British North America Act. south of the Albany River in dispute between Canada and Ontario. Whereas His Majesty, by his Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the. To enable his imajesty to fix the rate and. direct the disposal of freight money, To enable his majesty to make regulations with respect to the taking and curing fish on Labrador, and his majestys other possessions in North America, according to a convention made between His Majesty and the United States of America. Jesse Lewis (United States) v. Great Britain - Office of Legal Affairs 14 Apr 2015 : United States--Claims vs [On the original is written, in the handwriting of His Imperial Majesty, of the north-west coast of America. Beginning from Behring Straits to... In regard to other nations, the Companies ships shall not have All Courts of Law shall recognize the Administration of the Company Bulletins of State Intelligence - Google Books Result An Act to enable His Majesty to make regular tions with respect to the taking and curing fish on certain parts of the coasts of Newfoundland, Labrador, and His Majestys other possessions in North America, according to a convention made between His Majesty and the United States of America. An Act for further regulating Full text of Review of President Grants recent message to the. The action was brought against the American fishing schooner Frederick. to enable His Majesty to make regulations with respect to the taking and curing fish on or within three marine miles of any of the coasts, bays, creeks, or harbours of His Britannic Majestys dominions in America, not the convention.20 But, as pointed out by the Privy Council in Direct United States The Statutes Relating to the Admiralty, Navy, Shipping, and. - Google Books Result This taking possession of that Island (says Dr. Forster) on the part of the Crown of. Following on the American war came the Treaty of Versailles, in 1783, by which His Majesty the Most Christian King, in order to prevent the quarrels which have With regard to the fishery in the Gulph of St. Lawrence, the French shall ?350 The American Fisheries. [April - Jstor To enable his majesty to direct the distribution of any reward awarded by the. To enable his majesty to make regulations with respect to the taking and curing fish on Labrador, and his majestys other possessions in North America, according to a convention made between his majesty and the United States of America. A Collection of Statutes Connected with the General Administration. - Google Books Result The United States Government claims from His Britannic Majestys Govern- ment the sum. An Act to enable His Majesty to make regulations with respect to the taking and curing offish in certain parts of the coasts of Newfoundland and Labrador, and in his said Majestys other possessions in North America, according to a.