The Irish Historic Towns Atlas records the topographical development of a representative selection of Irish towns and cities. Each atlas focuses on the detailed mapping of historical features within a town or city. The project aims to preserve and document the architectural and cultural heritage of Ireland's historic towns.

As an additional public resource, extracts from the text sections of selected publications of the Irish Historic Towns Atlas (IHTA) project in the Royal Irish Academy are available. These extracts provide insights into the historical context and significance of each town featured in the atlas.

The Royal Irish Academy, publisher of the Irish Historic Towns Atlas (IHTA), has announced that it is producing a Dublin suburbs series of Irish Historic Towns Atlas. This series aims to extend the coverage of the IHTA project to include suburbs and areas beyond the traditional urban centers.
