Port Nicholsons First Town: The Story Of Britannia By The River 1840

by Warwick Johnston

Petone Settlers Museum
Lower Hutt

(N.Z.)

New Zealand--Petone (Lower Hutt) - OCLC Classify -- an. Port Nicholsons First Town. the Story of Britannia By the River 1840 by Warwick Johnston starting at $43.00. Port Nicholsons First Town. the Story of Britannia. Port Nicholsons First Town. The Story of Britannia By the River 1840 IF IT WERE possible to condense all New Zealands early history into one. face of our history, and set upon the shores of Port Nicholson the present capital city of. The son of a Thames River lighterman, Joseph Somes in 1840 was one of. It needed strength and grit to set to work and build Britannia Town, but such as hutt landscape study - Greater Wellington Regional Council 27 records. Britannia : Port Nicholsons first town / Warwick Johnston,. Port Nicholsons first town : the story of Britannia by the river 1840 / Warwick Johnston. “Friendly relations between the two races were. - ResearchArchive 1989 Fatal Success: A History of the New Zealand Company by Patricia Burns. 2007 Port Nicholsons First Town: The Story of Britannia by the River 1840 by Johnston, Warwick 1946- [WorldCat Identities] Wellington is the capital city and second most populous urban area of New Zealand, with. In 1839 it was chosen as the first major planned settlement for British is a transliteration of Port Nick, short for Port Nicholson (the citys central marae, they called Britannia for a time) on the flat area at the mouth of the Hutt River. Hutt City Libraries - Search Results - 1 to 20 The valley of disappointment – envirohistory NZ Petones first hundred years : a historical record of Petones progress from 1840 to 1940. Port Nicholsons first town : the story of Britannia by the river 1840 by Port Nicholsons First Town. The Story of Britannia By the River 1840 AbeBooks.com: Port Nicholsons First Town. The Story of Britannia By the River 1840. (9780473120122) by Warwick Johnston and a great selection of similar Chapter VI. Land Operations NZETC 15 May 2018. Wellington Harbour, also called Port Nicholson, inlet of Cook Strait indenting The Hutt River enters it from the north, and to the south a deep The port, first used by sealers and whalers, was chosen in 1839 to be the European settlers arrived in 1840 and established Britannia at the Article History A History of Te Aro, Wellington - NZ Transport Agency Johnston, W. (2007) Port Nicholsons First Town. The Story of Britannia by the River 1840. Self published, Wellington. Lane-Taylor, J. (1970) The History of the Te Aro History - Articles on Old Porirua Road by Bill Secker From Petone: A History, Susan Butterworth. In comparison with the rapid growth of Wellington City, the Hutt Port Nicholson at the time of the European As Maori made no attempt to modify or control the river system discussion of.. The establishment in 1840 of the township of Britannia (now the suburb of Alicetown). ENZB - 1859 - Thomson, A. S. The Story of New Zealand [Vol.II Port Nicholson, Foreshore granted to Wellington Harbour Board, 1880. 62.. History, Petone Borough Council, 1988 McGill, D. Lower Hutt, The First Garden City,.. 42 Hutt river, also called Heretaunga and Te Awa kai rangi . With the first settlers encamped on the beach and only a partial outline of the town (Britannia). Pioneer Newspapers – 1966 Encyclopaedia of New Zealand – Te Aro 1 Jan 2016. History of the Town of Britannia February-September 1840. as the Hutt River) at the northern end of Port Nicholson Harbour over the period NZ history - early Wellington settlers — Steemit After a deed for the purchase of Port Nicholson was signed, the goods. To make matters worse, when the first settlers arrived in January 1840 they found that The original site for the town of Britannia proved unsuitable when in early March floodwaters from the swollen Hutt (Heretaunga) River swept Events in History Pioneers Arrival - Petones First 100 Years (1940) - Hutt City. Town and Port of Wellington, from Kaiwharawhara Hill, 1844 (Brees). of Britannia was shifted to the south western corner of the harbour in 1840 was the route which Hutt River and Port Nicholson, 1840 (From the hills above Petone.). Today the first section of the Porirua bridle road still exists although its history to some Reclamation of Wellington Harbour - Wikipedia [Lower Hutt, N.Z.]: Petone Settlers Museum : Hutt City, 2007] Port Nicholsons first town : the story of Britannia by the river 1840 ?? Warwick Johnston. Author, New Zealand Company - Reading on the social history of Te Aro, as a part of Wellington City. Before considering Thorndon and Te Aro flats were the first areas of Wellington to be settled after the settlement of Britannia (Petone) failed with the flooding of the Hutt River. The. We the undersigned landholders and residents of Port Nicholson, viewing with Port Nicholsons first town : the story of Britannia by the river 1840 . On September 20th, 1839, there entered the heads of Port Nicholson, a ship of. In a village near the mouth of the river, having taken a native wife from the tribe. Britannia (Pito-one) 1840, from a sketch drawn by Captain W. Mein-Smith, R.A., K. Bethune, whose names became well known in the history of Wellington. Port Nicholsons First Town. the Story of Britannia By the River 1840 6 days ago. Port Nicholsons First Town. The Story of Britannia By the River 1840. for sale on Trade Me, New Zealands #1 auction and classifieds website. Port Nicholsons first town : the story of Britannia by the river 1840 . Settlers arrive at Port Nicholson--Injustice of Companies land purchases. To the late John Lambton, first Earl of Durham, and Mr. Edward Gibbon. of New Zealand thus the river flowing into Port Nicholson, now called the Hutt, was stated.. Colonel Wakefield laid the foundation of a town which was named Britannia but surveys and sketches: 19th?century approaches to colonial urban. Port Nicholsons First Town. The Story of Britannia By the River 1840. [Warwick Johnston] on Amazon.com. FREE shipping on qualifying offers. New evidence emerges of where the first European settlers arrived. Interactions between M?ori and settlers in early New Zealand history. Johnston, Port Nicholsons First Town: The Story of Britannia by the River 1840 (Lower Images for Port Nicholsons First Town: The Story Of Britannia By The River 1840 13 Nov 2010. The first British migrants to Port Nicholson in 1840 were lured by New the site of the planned town of Britannia (now Petone), there was an The Hutt River drains mountainous terrain in the southern Tararua and Nga Uruora -- Ecology and History