Bernard of Clairvaux: Sermons on the Song of Songs

Bernard of Clairvaux, a dominant personality of the twelfth century, preaches a sermon on the Song of Songs, which is Solomon's. He allegorically interprets the Song of Songs, summarizing his sermons on the Song of Songs as a theological allegory. His eighty-six sermons offer a theological understanding of the Song of Songs, providing a rich resource for understanding the text.
Song of Solomon series, as well as an Introduction Video to this book, in which Brad helps define this.
